EXPLORER QUESTIONS

1. Find the stone obelisk on the west side of the courthouse. Lincoln County is named for a Revolutionary War general. What was his name?
Stop 1: The Courthouse Square

2. Read the Civil War Trails marker. What did Union soldiers use the walled courthouse for?
Stop 2: Courthouse Lawn: Monuments and Markers

3. For more than 50 years, a women's club ran something in this building for the whole town, with no public money. What was it?
Stop 3: The Pythian Building

4. This 1867 building was the town jail (a calaboose). What is it used for today?
Stop 4: The Old City Calaboose

5. Find the plaque at 310 Elk Ave. S. What year does it give for the house?
Stop 10: South Elk Street Historic District

6. Find the Tennessee Music Pathways marker in front of the museum. In what year was songwriter Ed Townsend born in Fayetteville?
Stop 8: Fayetteville-Lincoln County Museum

Be a good explorer: stay on sidewalks and cross at corners with your grown-up. Be quiet at churches and cemeteries. Private homes are seen from the sidewalk only.
